Wayne County Development Alliance President Resigns

Wayne County, NC – County Manager Craig Honeycutt has accepted the resignation of Wayne County Development Alliance President Crystal Gettys. Mrs. Gettys resigned effective April 19, 2018, to pursue other interests. Mr. Honeycutt thanked Mrs. Gettys for her contributions to the Wayne County Development Alliance program, and the county in general.

Chairman William H. Pate stated the resignation was accepted by County Manager Craig Honeycutt, but ultimately was a decision of Mrs. Gettys. Wayne County Development Alliance Board Chairman Gary Smithwick stated, “We wish her the best as she transitions into the next phase of her career.” As this is a personnel matter, Chairman Pate said no other information would be given.

Mr. Honeycutt said recruitment for a new leader for this integral department has begun, and he stated the county will work with the Wayne County Development Alliance Executive Board to find the best individual to be the Wayne County Economic Developer. Until a candidate is chosen, Existing Industry Manager Tiffany Creech will serve as Interim President.
