

Domestic Violence

While searching for information to write in this article, we located a website hosted by a committee of agencies and individuals here in North Carolina. The information published by The North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence is very well arranged and we could not have provided a better web page on this topic. Make sure to read the "Handouts" section of this website. This is an excellent web site concerning Domestic Violence. For local assistance, dial "911" or you can call the Lighthouse of Wayne County Crisis Line at (919)736-1313, 24 hours a day.
